Alma Mater

I

Our Alma Mater glorious,
With loving hearts and proud,
We crown thee all victorious
And sing thy praise aloud.
In loyalty we serve thee
And strive to heed thy call,
Mount Vernon, O, Mount Vernon!
Through self to conquer all.

II

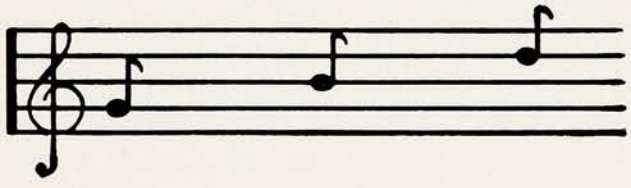

You give unfailing kindness
If trouble meets us here;
You foster all our pleasures
And make them seem more dear.
Nor time, nor care, nor sorrow
Can these fair days erase,
But they, with each tomorrow
Help us new tasks to face.

III

Like Breath of Spring's fresh morning
That lifts the hearts to song,
When courage droops and wavers
And paths seem gray and long,
Will come thy dauntless spirit
To help us on the way.
Mount Vernon, O, Mount Vernon!
Hold fast thy tender sway.

IV

The changing years may bring us
Some longed for dream of bliss,
Yet memory will cherish
A sympathy we miss.
In hours of joy or sadness,
Whate'er our need may be,
Mount Vernon, O, Mount Vernon
Thy children turn to thee.

You Belong To Our Heart

Dedication

We, the class of nineteen hundred and forty-nine, proudly dedicate our BELL COTE to you, Miss Foerderer, in sincere appreciation for the friendship, understanding, and loyalty you have shown us. As the years pass by, Flo, our hearts will hold high the love and joint memory of you and the spirit of Mount Vernon which you represent.

Class History

"Look for the green ribbon" echoed through the Union Station on September 23, 1947. That was the day ninety bewildered girls piled off trains coming from all over the country to begin their studies at Mt. Vernon. Aunt "Minnie" saw that with our suitcases, as well as our heads, we were delivered safely to our new home. The school was still rather new, and we were fascinated to see the red clay grounds turn into beautiful green lawns in no time at all.

The first task that confronted us was six weeks of probation with a test and a vaudeville at the end. The Seniors must have been rather pleased at the proceedings for we were the first class in years to all get off probation. That started us working together as a unit under the leadership of Martha Boardman.

We soon chose our class motto, colors, and flower which the Seniors never guessed after many drastic attempts. We were challenged to a Ingenuity Contest by the Seniors after Christmas and came out victors—we were a working unit.

Later in spring we had a ring ceremony with the presentation of our school ring. This was followed by the presentation of our colors. "One Night in Monte Carlo" was the theme for the traditional Junior-Senior banquet given in the early part of May in honor of the graduates.

It was a lost feeling when we told the Seniors good-by in June, but we treasured all the friendships that had been made.

When September, 1948, rolled around we returned but not as bewildered as before. We were Seniors and we had proudly awaited this for many years.

This year Miss DeLano was to be our class advisor and no one could have pleased us more. She was our "Rock of Gibraltar."

We challenged the Juniors to the Ingenuity Contest after Christmas and after a hard time on the part of the judges the decision was in our favor. We had not only worked together as a class but with spirit no one could take away.

The future months hold even more activities in store for us—money for the Building Fund, parties, and a fashion show. Only too soon will come Cap and Gown Ceremony, the Tree Planting Ceremony and Class Night. Our last step will be graduation in June—a day which we will receive a slip of paper that will entitle us to take our places in a new world but a slip that symbolizes all that Mt. Vernon has meant to us and will continue to mean to us through the years. "He who wills to succeed, can not fail" was never more truer said than of the Class of 1949. So stay as you all are and you will succeed for not a one of you deserves to fail.

Dear Flo:

I received your letter yesterday inquiring about the doings of our Senior Class of 1949, and I'm only too glad to pass on to you the news that I've had.

It seems as though our gals are still retaining an interest in the local men's colleges. Helen Persson has just been appointed Director of Visual Education for a large majority of the Eastern men's colleges. She has her headquarters at Princeton. Mavis Brooks, Carolyn Cargile, and Margaret Benners are busily organizing a group to convince the administration at Washington and Lee University that their school should be co-educational. The former Virginia Addison has already made application to have her son attend Virginia Military Institute when he reaches the entrance age.

Bonny Howes is running a little tool shop in sunny Pasadena, and Caroline Arrington is occupied with the raising of Billygoats. Jody Thomas is winning stacks of blue ribbons for her champion horses; her biggest competition in this field comes from Ann Flannagan and Alberta Stephens who are raising a crop of winners themselves. Libby Jones is their dependable vetinarian, abely assisted by Franny Baker in the capacity of an efficient nurse.

Sue Boston is on a buying tour for her exclusive dress shoppe. Caroline Collier is her chief executive in charge of advertising and Pat Candler, Betty Davis, Jane Neuenschwander and Franny Norris are her models. Dendy Iverson, Sue Bean and Mary Evans complete her staff as designers of red dresses for red heads. A project that has been giving them more than a little difficulty.

Sally Lou Smith is the head of the League of Women Voters, Sue Cravens has just been elected National Chairman of the Doll Club and Nancy Clark is Dean of Women at Stanford. Virginia Persons is running an International Date Bureau and employing overworked secretaries, Diana Hutchinson, Ann Wedthoff and Dorris Chapin.

Saw a picture of Pat Leach in the Washington Post. She was looking mighty happy over the cup she had won in the Bermuda races. Also heard that Ardie Robinson was applying as Sigma Chi House Mother at Utah University. Laura Murphy is busily knitting carburetor covers; Kitty Parker is editing a church bulletin; Julia Emiliani was South America's annual beauty queen, Pixie, at last report, was typing out her autobiography, The Pixie Papers, Barbara Baldwin is working as a barker for Ringling Brothers Circus, Jackie Yokum is pitching for the Brooklyn Dodgers; and Rosa Maria Garcia-Tunon has taken over her uncle's position at Georgetown.

If you see a familiar face on a sign board the chances are its either Mary Ellen Shipps, Martha Evans or Marjorie McKinnon who are making a fortune advertising "the pause that refreshes" for Janie Carson's firm.

I ran into Joan Hitchcock, Peg Merriam and Liz Weldon in the Army-Navy Club. Guess what they were doing? Looking for a fourth for bridge. Also heard from Anne Yerkes that she's still having trouble trying to explain her nickname and Joey Mulford is more bargain conscious than ever now with a new arrival in her family. Saw Dee Coolidge at the airport. Seems as though she spends most of her time trying to catch planes to Memphis. Irene Connelly, I hear, is personally responsible for "see Rock City" sign in the southern part of the United States. Martha Boardman is running a peaceful rest home. I hear her guests are always in bed by eleven in the evening. Ginny de Serville has taken up residence with her family in Atlanta. Elizabeth McCarthy is running a charm school for prospective actresses with Marianne McGowen and Helen Logan as assistants. Carol Raymond and Freddy Mendoza are chaperoning groups of Mt. Vernon pupils on European and South American tours.

Phil Klingler and Janis Shoop are running a nursery school. Jan is doing the cooking and they are losing money as she insists on steak for every meal. M. C. Woolwine is giving guitar lessons and Louise McNeel is her financial advisor. Barbara Ritch, Marti Lanier and Mary Anne Swint are sponsoring quiz kid programs. The majority of the participants on it are their own children. Last of all, the former Misses Marion Smith, Molly Armbrecht, and Melissa McIntire are running a very profitable Navy Wives Diaper service.

Sincerely,

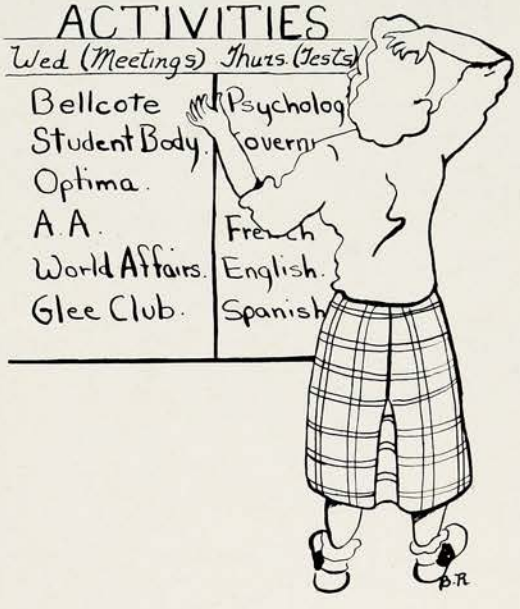

Fanny Shaw

GEORGE WASHINGTON
NEVER SLEPT HERE

- Neither George Washington nor anyone else was ever known to sleep in the Book Store.
- The reason is, of course, that the Book Store is never soporific. It's too interesting, too cheerful and too full of clever and attractive things to permit of any dozing off.
- You'll find everything from stationery to scotch tape in the Book Store. In fact, everything except George Washington!
